David Kovalev

contact@davidkovalev.com

OBJECTIVE

To secure an internship or entry-level position in cybersecurity or IT, leveraging my educational background, technical skills, and strong analytical abilities to contribute to organizational security and technology goals while furthering my personal and professional growth.

EDUCATION

Bachelors in Cybersecurity at North Greenville University 2024-26 (4.0 GPA)
Relevant Coursework: Linux Fundamentals, Ethical Hacking and Systems Defense, Network Fundamentals, Network Security, and Windows Desktop Administration.
General education at South Piedmont Community College 2021-23 (3.917 / 4.0 GPA)
Earned Information Technology – Programming Fundamentals Certificate (SPCC)
Apprentice Academy Highschool 2019-2023 (4.0 / 4.0 GPA)

SKILLS

Technical Skills:

- Operating Systems: Mac, Windows, Linux
- Tools: BurpSuite, Wireshark, Metasploit
- Programming: Python, PowerShell, C++, Java

Soft Skills:

- Extremely hard worker with a great sense of responsibility and professionalism.
- Attentive to details. Adaptable to multiple changes.
- Excellent organizational and communicational skills.
- Real team player, reliable, quick learner, motivated, friendly.
- Strong analytical and troubleshooting skills.
- Willingness to work overtime to meet schedules and deadlines; work well under pressure.

WORK EXPERIENCE:

MasterKraft Inc (Estimator) (July 2021 - Jan 2025)

- Analyzed blueprints to assess risks and ensure pricing accuracy, demonstrating attention to detail and problem-solving skills transferable to IT environments.

- Worked with customers and teams to meet tight deadlines, showcasing adaptability and communication skills.

- Gained proficiency in working with measurements, numbers, and technical documents.

Precision Plumbing (Virtual Construction Assistant) (June 2020 - Dec 2020)

- Collaborated with a team of designers using 3D design software to meet project deadlines, demonstrating technical proficiency and teamwork.
- Gained experience in interpreting complex designs and aligning them with project goals.

REFERENCES: Available upon request